PRESS RELEASE

Management and Engineering Technologies International Inc. (METI, Inc.) is Named No. 7 on Washington Technology's List of Top 25 8(a) Small Businesses in their October 6, 2008 issue.

El Paso, Texas, October 6, 2008: Management and Engineering Technologies International, Inc. announced today that they were named to the prestigious Washington Technology's Top 25 8(a) Small Businesses list.

WASHINGTON TECHNOLOGY

METI ranked No. 7 on Washington Technology's Top 25 8(a) Small Businesses list. Companies on the list are ranked according to their total prime-contracting dollars in FY 2007, not only their 8(a) work. However, Washington Technology sets a threshold that companies who are listed must meet in regards to their 8(a) revenue in order to show that the program played a role in the companies' success. Also, the majority of the companies listed have a an array of agencies as their customers including METI, whos portfolio of diverse customers includes the Amry, Navy, Air Force, FAA, and USDA Forest Service.

Renard U. Johnson, President/CEO of METI stated that he was "humbled and proud to be considered for the list and most of all to be ranked No.7 among such great firms. Accomplishments such as this truly validate all of the hard work vested in building the company's success."
